Ste Adele en Haut

IN THE ROMANTIC

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC - CANADA

MONT TREMBLANT

Hello!

At our distinctive resort in this quaint French Canadian village, just 45 miles north of Montreal, we are having fun skiing, skating and moonlight sleigh-riding sky high in the Laurentian Mountains. • In the evenings we go dancing, bowling, go to the movies or participate in other organized activities. Sunday morning nearly everyone goes to church.

Ste. Adele is the hub of a great network of Laurentian ski trails, including the famous "Maple Leaf". All trails find their rendez-vous on our famous open slopes "40" and "80".

Incidentally these slopes are equipped with rope tows. It is only a short ski jaunt to other hills equipped with T-Bar lifts. • Our ski school teaches the Canadian Ski school technique, privately or in groups.
